

Information about additional relief under the SEC Settlement

If you purchased stock of the Royal Dutch Petroleum Company and/or the "Shell" Transport and Trading Company plc ("Shell") during the period from April 8, 1999 through March 18, 2004, inclusive you also may be eligible to receive relief under a separate settlement that Shell entered into with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). As part of this settlement approximately $120 million was paid by Shell to the SEC. The SEC has agreed to distribute this settlement amount to purchasers of Shell shares whether they purchased the shares in the United States or outside of the United States.

Information about the SEC settlement and how to file a claim, can be found on www.shellsecsettlement.com.

Please note that the Stichting Shell Reserves Compensation Foundation has no involvement in the distribution of this additional settlement amount.
